Take a look at this page.

The boy is saying good-bye to the girl, because he is going to see the whale.

And now he is far from the girl

I'm going to open this.

Look, a girl in a green boat is farther than the boy.

Oh, no! The whale is hiding from her.

Let me open it again!

The boy in a purple boat is the farthest of the three, and he is playing with the whale.

What can you see on this picture?

I see a cat and a mouse.

The cat is running after the mouse.

The cat is hungry and it wants to eat the mouse.

Mouse, run, run, run fast! Or the cat will eat you up!

I'm going to open this.

Look! It is running faster!

Mouse, run, run, run faster! Or the cat will eat you up!

Let me open it again!

Wow! The mouse finally rushed into the mouse hole.

Good job, mouse! You ran the fastest!

He sees an eel.

Let me open it again!

But the boy is looking for the biggest fish under the sea.

So he dives to the deepest part of the sea.

Wow! He found the biggest fish at last!

Take a look at the baby birds!

They are opening their mouth, because they're very hungry.

Where is mommy bird?

Mommy bird is flying down to the water to catch fish for her babies.

I'm going to open it.

Now she is lower and is very near to the fish.

Let me open it again!

But when she reached the lowest, she failed catching the fish.

Oh, no! You'd better get some other food for your hungry baby birds!

The boy climbed up the bean stock and saw a big giant.

They look very happy.

I'm going to open it.

But then they saw a bigger giant.

He says, "I'm bigger than you."

The big giant looks sad, because he is bigger than him.

Let me open it again!

Look, there is the biggest giant.

The boy rides on the biggest giant's hand and looks like he's having fun.

But these two other giants are sad.

Because, they thought that they were the biggest, but now they know they are not.
