Hey! What do you see here?
What? Bird?
Right, a butterfly!
I am a butterfly.
I can fly up and down very quickly.
Flutter, flutter, flutter!
Can you fly like me? Great!
The title says "Flutter by, Butterfly".
What will you see this book?
Let's check it out!

1-2

Here comes again. What is the name of this insect?
Right, it's a butterfly.
It's green and blue!
So beautiful!
Butterfly can.....run?
No, butterfly can fly.
Flitter, flutter, flitter, flutter.
Let's flap the wings together.
Flitter flutter!
What do you see next?

3-4-

Listen! Buzz! Buzz!
What's this insect?
It's a bee.
This bee is so busy because it's buzzing here, buzzing there, buzzing everywhere!
Buzz! Hey, watch out!
Let's go to the next page!

5-6-

Wow, look at this pretty round insect.
Do you know the name of this insect?
It's a ladybird.
Say hello ladybird!
It has black spots on the red body.
Can you see the black spots?

What is its name?

Spotty, dotty, ladybird.

A ladybird can fly. Fling~~

Bye, bye spotty dotty ladybird!

7-8

Oh, this insect is very slow and slimy.

Phew! Do you know what it is?

Right, it's a snail.

Have you ever seen a snail before?

Have you ever held a snail in your hands?

Me, too! It's very slimy.

What will you see next?

9-10

Tada!

Wow this is very teeny tiny.

It moves like this.

Crawl, crawl, crawl...

Do you want to know the name of this insect?

It's a beetle.

Say beetle! Let's say it together.

Do you like this bug?

I'm a little bit frightened.

Creepy crawly beetle, creepy crawly beetle, where are you going?

Next, you will see something wiggling...

What would it be?

11-12

Look! This is something long.

It moves like this.

Wiggle, wiggle, wiggle!

It's a worm.

Have you ever seen a wiggly worm after the rain? Good!

A worm is wiggly.

What else would be wiggly?

Can you guess?

13-14

This is wiggly too.

It's a caterpillar!

Say caterpillar!

This caterpillar has beautiful colors.

What colors do you see?

Right, red, purple, blue, green, and yellow.

Oh, this caterpillar is very hungry so it is eating a green leaf.

Crunch, munch, crunch munch!

When it grows up, it will be a beautiful butterfly.

Flutter, flutter, butterfly!
