Do you like strawberries? Yes, I like them, too.

What about the boy? The boy looks angry because his hat is wet.

Where are they?

They're on the grass.

They are eating the strawberries they picked.

How do the strawberries taste?

Right, very sweet.

Where are they? They are in a meadow.

What animal do you see? We see lambs and small horses.

Do you know what a small horse is called? It is called a pony.

What are they doing? They're dancing together.

Maybe they are having a party with strawberries.

After all that dancing they look tired.

The ponies and lambs went away.

The goose is saying something to the bear.

They found some more berries.

What can we call this berry? Blackberry!

What shape is it? I think it looks like train.

page 15~16

They are going to somewhere on the train.

The train is on the track.

What are they doing?

They are picking lots of blackberries.

It looks so yummy!

page 17~18

Can you guess what world is it?

page 19-20

Take a look at this sign. What does it say?

Berryland. This place is berryland

Who are they? They have musical instruments. A drum, trumpet, and tuba.

They're playing music. They must be a band.

page 21-22

What do you see? There are three elephants.

They're skating on pink ice.

Look over here ! We see lots of pink berries in a tank. They're making jam.

What are the pink berries called? Right, raspberries.

We see a very large basket and a rabbit that has two rockets.

What are the bear and the boy going to do?

page 23-24

Wow! It's so beautiful.

They're flying in the sky

They are displaying fireworks. What sound do they make?

Boom! Boom! Boom!

All kinds of berries are pouring down.

The bear and the boy are buried under berries.

But they look so happy.

Do you want to be buried under berries?
