

Hippo Has a Hat

Cover page

We see a hippo here.

He's wearing a hat.

He looks so happy.

The title of this book is, "Hippo Has a Hat" written by Julia Donaldson. Illustrated by Nick Sharratt.

Page 1-2

Look here! There are lots of animals.

They're visiting somewhere.

Can you guess where it is?

Right! It's a market.

We see some hats, bags, and clothes.

Let's look around with the animals.

Page 3-4

The tiger is trying to wear a shirt.

Look at this page!

This is a leopard.

What is it wearing now?

It's wearing a skirt. It likes it very much.

Page 5-6

This time we see a hippo.

He's wearing a hat with feather.

He looks like a gentleman.

This little cat is wearing a cardigan.

Is there anyone who wore a cardigan today?

Page 7-8

What animal is this?

It's a camel with two big humps.

What is it wearing?

It's wearing a coat.

What about the goat?

The goat is wearing a jacket with a hood.

It looks very warm.

It is called a-no-rak.

Page9-10

Can you find any animal here?

I don't know what it is.

Ah-ha! It's a frog. It's not good for him.

It's too big.

Oh my goodness! Poor pig!

He can't fasten the button.

Hey pig! It's not for you!

Page 11-12

What animal is this?

It's a zebra.

It looks angry. Do you know why?

The zipper is broken and it won't go up.

Look at the duck!

Does it look like a duck?

No, I don't think so.

Page 13-14

This is shoe store.

We see a caterpillar and a gorilla.

The caterpillar has lots of shoes.

It's because it has many legs.

The gorilla is smiling.

He is happy with his slippers.

They look like rabbits.

Page 15-16

A flamingo has a beautiful bag.

Do you want to buy it?

A stag has a necklace.

It looks like a crown.

What will happen next?

Page 17-18

All the animals look so happy.

They are dancing together.

Do you want to join with them?

What would you want to do with the animals?