Child: I know that you love me, but not how much.

Mom: When do you feel loved?

Child: When you hug me. When you give me goodnight kisses.
When you make me a delicious meal.

[면지]

Child: I see it, too.

Mom: What else can you see?

Child: I also see a lot of penguins. They are lined up in the cliff of iceberg.

Mom: Good. I think these penguins are waiting to jump into the water.

Why do you think they are jumping into the sea?

Child: They want to catch a fish.

Mom: Good answer. Do you also see some seals on the left?

Child: Yes, I see them too! I think they're families also.

[page 1-2]

Mom: What is Mummy Penguin doing?

Child: She's sliding down the iceberg.

Mom: Why?

Child: I don't know, maybe to catch a fish.

[page 3-4]

Mom: So why did Mummy Penguin slide down the iceberg?

Child: She was trying to get dinner for Daddy Penguin and Little Penguin.

Mom: Good! Do you think she'll succeed?

Child: She has to, or else the family will starve.

[page 5-6]

Mom: What's happening?

Child: Daddy Penguin is pointing at Mummy Penguin!

Child: Mummy Penguins, along with other penguins, won't be safe.

Mom: You're right. Be careful, Mummy Penguin!
