Mom: Look at the cover. What do you see?

Child: I see some underwater creatures.

Mom: What are they?

Child: I see a crab, a shell, some fish, and a starfish.

Mom: Good. Let's read the book and find out where Swimmy's friends are.

[page 1-2]

Mom: Where can Swimmy be?

Child: I don't know.

Mom: Lift the flap to find out.

Child: There he is!

Mom: Where is he?

Child: He's behind the giant shell.

[page 3-4]

Mom: Where are Swimmy's brothers and sisters?

Child: I don't know.

Mom: Lift the flap to find out.

Child: There they are?

Mom: Where are they?

Child: They're behind a big rock.

[page 5-6]

Mom: Now, let's meet Swimmy's friends.

Child: Where are they?

Mom: Some are behind these rocks. Do you see the rocks?

Child: Yes, I see them.

Mom: Lift the flap to find out who Swimmy's friends are.

Who are they?

Child: Lobsters!

[page 7-8]

Mom: Other friends are hiding behind the seaweed.

Child: Where?

Mom: Behind the seaweed. Lift the flap to find out who they are!

Child: They are eels! The eels are behind the seaweed.

Mom: Very good.

[page 9-10]

Mom: Swimmy also has some graceful friends.

Can you guess who they are?

Child: Hmm... I don't think so.

Mom: Lift the flap to find out.

Child: Some graceful friends are jellyfish.

[page 11-12]

Mom: What is going on here?

Child: Someone is swimming up behind Swimmy.

Mom: Who is it? If you lift the flap, you'll see.

Child: A hungry tuna.

Mom: Where's Swimmy?

Child: He's hiding away from the hungry tuna.

Mom: So where's he hiding? Lift the flap to find out.

Child: Swimmy's behind the seaweed.

[page 15-16]

Mom: Swimmy is planning to ask his friends to chase away the hungry tuna.

If you lift the flap, you'll see where his friends are.

Child: His friends are gathered behind the rock.

Mom: Can you count how many?

Child: Fifteen of them.

Mom: Do you think they can chase away the tuna?

Child: I think so, yes.

[page 17-18]

Mom: What is going on here?

Child: Swimmy' friends, little red fish, are swimming together.

Mom: Why are they swimming together? Lift the flap. What do they look like?

Child: They look like a giant fish in a whole!

Mom: Very good. Look at them. There are tens of red fish swimming together.

So did they succeed in scaring away the tuna?

Child: Yes. The hungry tuna is now running away.

Mom: You're right. Swimmy and his friends worked together to look a lot bigger than the tuna.
